Fifteen years of careful study of Communism equips us to analyze the subject. Many who read this have known us for years and are aware that this is an honest effort to preserve the United States from Red slavery. Communism has reached its position in this country by deception, as we will show you. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. We are nonpartisan, have no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information from over the world.

WIN THE PEACE MOVEMENT

This is a well organized movement now holding meetings all over the United States — thousands of well meaning Americans have been trapped into helping this RED FRONT. Here is a typical case, of which there are many:

A prominent professional man made the principal speech at their meeting, later to learn that he had been helping Communism. After further investigation, this gentleman is now exposing the Communist method of securing assistance from all professions.

Attendants at these meetings should check up on the leaders of this Red movement — you will learn they are identified with from one to twenty Communist Fronts, and many write for Red Front magazines and papers. They are clever at drawing in Americans to destroy their own government. This is how they pyramid their strength.

Their program is mainly to:

1. Praise the Russian system of government.
2. Get control of Atom bomb out of Military hands and into a Civilian Committee they can name, so Russian agents may get the secrets.
3. Cause a war on Spain—the flame needed for World War III, to bring more confusion so Stalin may spread further to Gibraltar and take the Mediterranean — Stalin's two-year plan now is to take all the Mediterranean from Spain to Turkey. He can do it if he can bring about starvation in these countries as in most of the European countries he now dominates.

Stalin makes not one move to check starvation anywhere. Those innocent, uninformed, politicians in the U. S. who have expected Stalin to cooperate in feeding starving people now learn that he will not give a pound of food. Those who have studied the instructions and teachings from the Kremlin to their leading agents the last fifteen years, as how to bring hunger and despair as their greatest asset, understand this world-wide political organization. They understand Communist-instigated strikes — campaigns of hate — instigated war. They understand these government agencies, products of the Communist brain, while we are frightened by emergencies inflamed by Fellow Travelers. They understand why these government agencies prevent the accomplishment of the very thing they were supposedly created to do.

Once the agency is created, regardless of who is placed at the head, powerful Red master minds whose names are seldom in print, see that so much confusion results that you get no shirts, meat, radios.

They want disgust of our government so they can push their government down our throats. These agencies are to see NOT that you get more houses built, but that you get less houses and less of everything; at the same time spending millions of the taxpayers' money to support these agencies while the only benefit derived is to give employment to thousands of Reds. These Red master minds are so entrenched, and Red-controlled radio has built them up so, the American citizen is afraid to mention their names. They are in our highest courts, universities, have been appointed Ambassadors, are U.S. Senators and Congressmen, and Presidential advisers NOW. They control the appointment of fact-finding committees, labor boards and foreign diplomats.

AMERICA STILL LIVES IN ELIZABETH

The Win the Peace Committee of Union County held its second meeting Tuesday night, June 11th, at the Y.M.C.A. in Elizabeth, N. J. It was a lively affair!

Every effort was made by Dr. Goldstein, the principal speaker, to cover up the fact that it is a Communist front. The forty-five minute talk was devoted to praising Russia and its system of government as it functions in Russia and many other European countries, and smearing Spain and France.

The American form of government was held up to ridicule and pictured as directed by Imperialists who are trying to cause war on peaceful Russia. Herbert Hoover was called a traitor. The 200,000 Polish men under Gen. Andre, who fought for Poland and are not free to return to Poland now, were smeared as Nazis.

By this time many Veterans, members of the V.F.W. and American Legion, were growing so hot that they were on the floor demanding time for questions. For one hour and fifteen minutes questions were fired from the floor, covering every phase of Communist activity. One Veteran read from the Congressional Record the Communist records of the National sponsors of Win the Peace. Another Veteran told the chairman that he would make every effort to see that the speaker, Dr. Goldstein, was removed as a teacher in the schools, as he is not fit to teach the youth of America.

Approximately twenty-five Veterans and businessmen were on the floor, asking questions. We just received this as we went to press—more on the Win the Peace Committee next week.

THE TRUE HISTORY OF COMMUNISM

By George Nelson

Most of us know that Wright invented the airplane, Robert Fulton the steamboat, Edison the electric light, and so forth. But since so few know the real history of Communism we give it here.—

In May, 1776, Adam Weishaupt, a university teacher of Bavaria, first put into actual practice the principles that the world could be conquered by infecting the masses of peoples with false ideas. Prior to that time people, as well as nations, were conquered almost by military arms alone and while many cunning schemers such as Machiavelli existed throughout history it was Weishaupt who first put into practice the modern doctrines of Communism.

Weishaupt proved that the people could be tricked into practicing false ideas and unworkable theories. For example, the people were told that if they killed their king, their government officials, their wealthy people and their church leaders, that they would have unprecedented liberty and freedom because they would be responsible to no one. The masses of the people were told that these were modern ideas and, even though much blood would be shed, that unparalleled equality and freedom would result for the people. . . . and that the secret revolutionary societies had only humanitarian aims.

With the hope of securing the promised liberty, equality and fraternity, a large group of deluded French people killed their king (Louis XIV), their government officials, their wealthy people, and their church leaders.

But after that bloody revolution, the people did not really gain the equality and freedom they sought but got only a change to masters far more severe than the first. Then the revolutionary leaders seized the government authority that had been cast into the street by the people. The people had been tricked for the simple reason that in nature itself there is no equality. Some are born strong, others weak. Some are intelligent, others not so. Some men are ambitious, others lazy. No two men are equally alike. Again for the simple reason that absolute freedom is contrary to nature.

Can we put our hand into fire without being burned? Do we have freedom to eat improper food? Who has freedom to violate the laws of nature without penalty? Not every idea is a practical fact and not all theories are workable. So the people of the French revolution got tyranny instead of equality and freedom they were promised.

Eventually, Weishaupt, Marat, Danton, Mirabeau, and other revolutionists, were jailed or executed. Their aims and works, however, were continued by other revolutionaries up to the present time under various names such as Socialists, Nihilists, Bolsheviks, Social Republicans, Laborites, Loyalists, etc. These are various names but with the same old Weishaupt doctrines, such as abolition of private property, abolition of existing governments, suppression of existing religions and regimentation of the masses of people.

Communism of today is really misnamed. The present day Communism is really Super Capitalism. Instead of the people being more equal, according to this system the people and their commissars are far more unequal.

The Russian leaders live in luxury while the modern Russian people live in ignorance, fear, and poverty-stricken slavery. All of Europe is in the menace of Communism today. Throughout history, people have been deceived and maneuvered into practicing false ideas and unworkable theories. But never before in the history of the world has the mechanism for deceiving people been so perfected.

On that day when all the people of the world know the truth about Communism and unite to oppose it, Communism and its plotters will be defeated. If the people continue to be pleasure-seeking, disloyal and gullible they will be enslaved as barnyard cattle in human form.

A REAL RED SPEAKS

It would interest our readers to read about a conversation that recently took place between one of our THINK distributors and an advocate of Communism. Of course the Soviet-minded character did not state that he is a Communist, because that would make his ideas too obvious. However, he said that all Christians, and especially Catholics, are foolish to believe that there is such a thing as a God. He said that he hated the people who would put out a thing similar to the paper "Think" and people who speak of God.

This 200 lb. robust character told our distributor that the American people need a government like Russia's. He said that the subways in Russia had rugs an inch thick on the floors and that he didn't know of anything like that in the United States.

Our Think distributor asked the character what he thought of the statement that Foster made one Sunday evening while debating against Clare Booth Luce—that he owed allegiance only to the Russian flag. His reply was that he hated Clare Booth Luce and Foster was correct.

What stirred our Pink friend most deeply was the piece in last week's paper about supporting a monkey before a Communist at election time. He raved and shouted and displayed his emotions around until our smiling distributor had to leave him standing.

For a little thought into the matter, it was later learned that this character is a prominent businessman and had bought 100 shares of Standard Oil stock the day before. He hates Capitalism and yet depends on it for his existence and luxury. How can people be that ignorant after what has taken place all over the world?

We have written this little article to help bring the facts home to you who are interested. If you wish to become more acquainted with the growing opposition to the principles of America, Read This Publication.

REP. DONDERO OF MICHIGAN WARNS OF RED INFILTRATION INTO VETERAN ORGANIZATIONS

Washington, D. C.—Warning the American Legion and other veterans' organizations of the increasing danger of Communist infiltration into their ranks, Rep. George A. Dondero (R.-Mich.), voiced the hope in the House of Representatives that this challenge would be successfully met. Addressing the House, he said:

"Mr. Chairman, I take this occasion to sound a warning to veterans, their organizations, and the country as a whole, that the Communist Party of the United States is making strenuous efforts to infiltrate veterans' organizations and to incite veterans against our Government. It will be remembered that the Communists took an active part in the Bonus March of 1932. Speaking of this event, Earl Browder, then general secretary of the Communist Party, declared at its eighth convention in Cleveland on April 28, 1945:

"The tremendous revolutionary potentialities in this movement was startlingly revealed by the great Bonus March in 1932. . . . The Veterans' Movement is a most valuable ally to the revolutionary working class movement. It stands as one of the important tasks of the entire party in mobilizing the auxiliary forces for the working class movement in the United States.

"Today the Communist Party is even more ambitious. It has already organized posts of so-called Labor Legionnaires within the American Legion. It is steadily infiltrating into that organization, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Veterans' Committee, and other groups. It has established a special veterans' commission to supervise this work. Its first ambitious project, shrewdly camouflaged, is a new monthly magazine called Salute, which I propose to analyze in detail.

"You will remember that Members of Congress repeatedly called attention to the suicidal policy of the War Department in permitting individuals with Communist records to take control of Army publications. Now the Communists are cleverly exploiting this mistake by announcing that Salute is produced by former editors and writers of Yank and Stars and Stripes. In fact, they have even copied the format of Yank in order to befuddle the veterans.

The first issue of Salute, dated April, 1946, follows the Communist Party line to the letter. In What I Think of the Army by Irwin Shaw, he says:

"Every time you open your mouth in the Army you feel the entire weight of 9,000 colonels hanging onto the tip of your tongue."

"I am sure the Soviet Army did not tolerate any propaganda for Democracy to creep into Army publications as we allowed Communist propaganda to be published in our own Army press.

"Throughout the publication there is a note of bitter criticism of the American Army fully in harmony with the propaganda issued by Communists in connection with recent demonstrations demanding demobilization. On page 12, we find a reprint of the bonus march of 1932, obviously in preparation for another bonus march in 1946 under Communist initiative.

"On pages 16 and 17 we find a number of scurrilous cartoons directed against Army officers.

"Richard Watts, Jr., in his article China Gropes for Freedom, espouses the cause of the Chinese Communists and denounces

Gen. Patrick J. Hurley.

"DeWitt Gilpin, a former writer for the Daily Worker, seeks to enlist the support of the veterans for strikes in his article entitled "Bread and Butter Front." This is in full accord with the policy outlined by Earl Browder.

"Walter Bernstein contributes his Balkan Adventure, eulogizing the Communist Marshal Tito.

"Who are the men behind this insidious publication? Let me give you a brief history of some of the outstanding figures.

"In advance publicity it was announced that the publisher of Salute is none other than Leverett Gleason, who is also known as Alexander Lev, former business manager of Soviet Russia Today, and connected in a managerial capacity with Communist-line publications: Friday Scoop, and Readers' Scope. For some unexplained reason, Mr. Gleason's name is not mentioned in the first issue of Salute. Other contributors are:

"James Dugan, writer for the Young Communist Review in 1939 and 1940; writer for the Communist New Masses; signer of the Call of the League of American Writers for its congress on June 6 to 8, 1941, against "involvement in this war." He was a writer for the British edition of Yank.

"DeWitt Gilpin, correspondent for the Daily Worker; discharged as a social worker because of his Communist activities in Kansas City. He was a writer for Yank.

"Irwin Shaw, member, Citizens' Committee for Harry Bridges; author of the pro-Communist play, Bury the Dead; signer of a statement defending the Moscow trials. He was a writer for Yank and Stars and Stripes.

"Walter Bernstein, writer for the Daily Worker; leading apologist for Marshal Tito. He was an editorial writer for Yank.

"A further check-up by the FBI will disclose many more Communist connections than I have given here.

"It should be noted incidentally that Max Novack, a contributor to Salute, has just been appointed head of the reemployment unit of the veterans' affairs section of the Claims Division of the Department of Justice."

BY ATTORNEY JEREMIAH STOKES, Former Congressman. OUR CONSTITUTION and everything for which it stands—our REPUBLIC, our FREEDOM, our RIGHTS, our SOVEREIGNTY, our SYSTEM of JURISPRUDENCE, our INSTITUTIONS, our HOMES, our CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION, everything, everything—hang upon a single thread and subversive forces, the POWERS of EVIL, are straining every nerve, are employing every trick of strategy, backed with millions, to crash our heritage!

"I CHOSE FREEDOM"

by Victor Kravchenko, former Soviet official now in this country.

This is a popular book just off the press of Charles Scribner's Sons. Price, 3.50, Post paid, cash with order.

This book is an answer to anyone who says Russia's system is even as good as slavery. So interesting you cannot lay it down. Our profit will be used to give away Thinks.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP?

If you would like to give fifty of these little papers away to help educate people to the danger of Communism, but you do not have the time, we will do it for you.

One dollar will pay actual printing. If you will send us a dollar we will see that these fifty are passed out wisely.

I CHOSE FREEDOM

This is Chapter 17 of "I Chose Freedom," by Victor Kravchenko, former Soviet official now in the United States.

Super-Purge Tapers Off

The publication in 1938 of a new official history of the Communist Party marked the tapering off of the super-purge.

I do not mean that the terror was stopped, that the Black Ravens remained unemployed. "Normal" arrests by the thousand, executions without trial, arbitrary exile of "undesirable elements" whose labor was desirable in forsaken regions, tortures and inquisitions continued.

Khan an Amateur.

The population of concentration camps and forced labor colonies multiplied as never before. Already, among Communists close to the Kremlin throne, whispered estimates placed the slave labor forces at more than 15,000,000; in the next few years the estimate would be closer to 20,000,000.

Genghis Khan was an amateur, a mud-dler, compared to Stalin. The Kremlin clique had carried through a ruthless war on their own country and people.

It was the windup of this long war that was signaled by the appearance of a new history. Shamelessly, without so much as an explanation, it revised half a century of Russian history. It was bold, specious, conscienceless fiction. There was a certain magnificence in its unabridged cynicism, its defiance of the common sense of the Russian people.

The roles of leading historical figures were perverted or altogether erased. New roles were invented for others.

Leon Trotsky, one of the creators of the Red Army, was represented as a fiendish agent of foreign capitalists who had sought to sell out his country, in collusion with Rykov, Bukharin, Zinoviev, Kamenev, Bubnov, Krestinsky, Piatakov and virtually all the other Fathers of the Bolshevik Revolution.

Documents Vanished.

Joseph Stalin, of course, emerged as the sole leader inside Russia before the Revolution, and as Lenin's once intimate and trusted associate thereafter. All books, articles, documents, museum materials which contradicted this extraordinary fantasy parading as history—and that means nearly all historical writings and documentation—disappeared throughout the country!

More than that, living witnesses, as far as possible, were removed. The directing staff of the Institute of Marx, Engels and Lenin in Moscow, repository of ideological truth, were removed and the more important people among them imprisoned or shot. The same thing happened in branches of the Institute in various parts of the country.

Another result of the big purge deserves mention. Every Communist carries a Party card. It is his personal passport, signed by the local Party officials who issued it.

Because most of the leading Party officials had been purged, the Kremlin could not tolerate this ironical touch. A new registration of Communists was therefore ordered in the fall of 1938. Where cards had been signed by liquidated "enemies of the people," new ones were issued.

The new cards were no longer the simple affair they used to be. They now included a photograph. Besides, a special booklet was now compiled for every Communist, in two copies, containing detailed biographical data, a record of activities, rewards, punishments; one copy was deposited at his City Committee, the other at the Central Committee in Moscow.

The whole procedure looked like a police documentation rather than a record of members of a political organization.

That there might be no illusions in this respect, a new rule was put into effect: Thereafter a Communist wishing to leave one city or region to settle in another—even if the change were on orders from above—had first to wait for a formal decision by the City Committee authorizing his departure.

Despite official measures to tie workers to their jobs, our turnover of labor was strikingly high. The remedy took the form of a new "labor book" for all workers, formally put on the statute books on January 15, 1939. The labor book became for the rank and file workman what the Party card was for the Communist. He could no longer leave his job without a written entry in the book authorizing him to do so.

Past Trails Worker.

He could obtain no other work unless the book showed his release at the previous place of employment. Moreover, the document carried a permanent record of any reprimands or punishments the holder may have received for lateness, production mistakes or other sins. Thus the worker was condemned to drag the burden of his entire past with him always wherever he might go.

Then came the Draconian edict on "strengthening socialist labor discipline." Let foreign innocents who profess to see "economic democracy" and a "worker's society" in Russia study this edict. The new law provided that anyone late to work more than 20 minutes must automatically be denounced by the local Prosecutor. He must then be tried and if found guilty, sentenced to prison or forced labor.

NEGROES IN THE SOUTH

Communism in America means slavery for all of us, black and white, far worse than existed before the Civil War. Nothing equals the slavery the majority of people in Russia exist under today.

—From the Communist propaganda booklet, The NEGROES in a SOVIET AMERICA, by James W. Ford and James S. Allen.

"There are 12,000,000 Negroes in the United States, about 9½ million live in the South. There is a stretch of land running from the eastern shore of Maryland down into Texas through 12 states and embracing about 397 counties in which the Negroes form the majority of the population. This is the homeland of the Negroes.

"The governments and armed forces of the white ruling class MUST BE REMOVED from this Black Belt, which by right belongs to the Negroes, and must be organized as a distinct political unit. The Negro majority must have full governmental control. It is where today they have begun to battle. The land should be divided among Negro farmers, croppers and tenants.

"Full economic, political and social equality should be guaranteed for NEGROES in every section of the country. We, therefore say to the Negro people: VIOLATE the Jim Crow rules. The Communist Party is the only party in America that has actually introduced NEGRO EQUALITY. Freedom must be fought for—and this fight cannot wait. It is literally a life and death struggle—THIS MEANS CIVIL WAR."

ISAAC DON LEVINE, author, columnist and critic, on February 11, 1938, wrote:

"Communism in America or in Great Britain, for example, parades as an independent political movement indigenous to the country of its operation. The truth is that every Communist Party abroad is A BRANCH OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF RUSSIA, and functions as an auxiliary of the Stalinist state."

FRONTS

If this paper was twice as large and we used every inch to list them, we could not cover them all, but will give you a few each week.

No doubt many true Americans belong to the more than three hundred Red Fronts. They were forced to join or joined not knowing they were being used to give strength and numbers to an organization whose key men—men who direct the important activities—are working under instructions from the POLITICBURO of the Kremlin. We say to the men who are not for Communism and who belong to these Fronts, if you are really sincere and want to know the truth, look up the men who are the brains of the National Organization. You will learn they belong to many Red Fronts and support Communistic movements. If you do not believe us, send the names of just three into the Un-American Activities Committee, in Washington, D. C., and ask them for a report. You will get their history and will be suprised.

One example: Philip Murray is a Catholic, hence not a Communist. He is far more useful as President of the C.I.O. than a Communist. Eighteen Communists have seats on his executive board. He is in the same position as the President of the United States will be after elections November 5th, if Sidney Hillman's organization elects enough Congressmen and Senators to support their Red program.

These Fronts are organized under unsuspecting names to trap and use you. They do everything possible to prevent you from knowing you are being used. Are you helping one of these?

THANK YOU

To those thoughtful people who have been so kind in sending contributions to us—We thank you. Every dollar is used wisely and entirely to carry on the fight, and the gesture gives us moral encouragement. It is going to take more contributions and some larger ones from those who can afford it, to enable us to spread this campaign. So far, five dollars is the largest contribution, and how we appreciated that amount! But we hope that some people who can really afford it will give us a big boost.

We will carry on the fight if you will back us up.

WHERE DO WE GET OUR FACTS ?

The facts and figures we give come as a shock to some people — who wonder. It is so new they can hardly believe it. Certainly it is hard to believe. You have been starved for the truth for six years. You have been given just what certain Red-dominated agencies wanted you to know. You have been trained to believe 2 and 2 are 5 and they are going to continue to screen and suppress the news for years to come if you don't drive them out of Washington. Yes, we give you facts—if we are going to print what you can read in the regular papers and hear on the radio, then there is no excuse for this paper to exist. We did not start this paper because there was a scarcity of newspapers, but because other papers will not publish these facts and the power behind radio control, F.C.C., would not for a minute allow such facts to be revealed.

Many editors know such facts but they know their money lies in the advertising—they know that most of the big advertisers would protest against these facts being published. We do not have advertising and this is a NON-PROFIT paper, so we are free to tell the truth.

The person who wishes chit-chat cleverly written by a pussy-footing writer will not like this paper.

HOW MUCH IS AMERICA WORTH TO YOU ?

This paper must depend upon voluntary contributions. The editors of this paper, fully realizing that all this confusion has been created by Communist master minds to soften us up for Red slavery, have waited years for other men to start a paper of this kind.

We were willing to follow some big men, but, apparently, they are too busy making money and accumulating property to turn over to the commissars appointed by Stalin.

So, we are not afraid to lead. If the business men and professional men, educators, ministers, and office holders, will forget their golf long enough and drop their business for enough time to THINK what is happening to their government, they will know that they are wasting their time getting something that is going to be taken away from them. Not from your children, but from you, within two years. If you doubt this, pin this article up on the wall or file it in your desk reminder to come up in December. See how it sounds then.

We have valuable knowledge, gained over many years. We know Communism, from Karl Marx to Sidney Hillman.

We are capable of directing a nation-wide Crusade. Not amateurs who have just awakened. We could say we told you so. On our resources we can carry on only a limited crusade.

We ARE ASKED FOR HELP EVERY DAY

Every day we receive requests for help in combatting the Red fifth column. They want to know who are Red fronts, because they find themselves helping Communism. They want information to use in preventing their unions from being taken over by Communists. They want speakers to appear at veterans' meetings to educate them so they might stop these Reds from boring into their veterans' organizations.

We are asked for Thousands of Thinks to distribute. Much detail work is to be done and the demands on us are increasing.

Veterans are much concerned. They are passing out Thinks—more veterans are coming to us every day. We are organizing workers over a large area, and requests are coming in from other states.

It takes money to print Thinks, even though the labor to put them out is free and our time is donated. Even the Red Cross could not offer a proposition like this. We would like to double our output each week.

You men who can afford it: Can you get a better set up to save America? We do not operate in the parlor or the club. We go on the streets and every place possible. We know the Communist language and we know their weaknesses.

We have an effective plan, which is the printed word. Learn what Mr. Stalin thinks of the printed word. We use the truth, with facts, and we have the courage to stick our necks out while we still have a neck. Your neck is no safer than ours.

Our plan is to educate the people with plain and simple language, and unmask the fifth column of Red Russia before them. We invite investigation and can give gilt-edge references as to our honesty. We welcome a plan whereby a committee of red-blooded Americans will be willing to pay the printers and not us. James Roosevelt and Harold Ickes, the two heads of only one front (Independent Citizens Committee of Arts, Sciences and Professions) draw a combined salary of sixty-five thousand a year. We don't draw a dime. Which work do you approve of?

We like to fight, but we must have plenty of ammunition for this job. One dollar spent now is worth twenty spent next December.

Money people in Europe who were worth fifty thousand dollars wish now that they had spent half then to save the other half.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Our heart bleeds when we read that the California Courts have again held that Charlie Chaplin has to pay the girl $75 per week for support of herself and child. He spent plenty of money trying to convince the Court he was not the father. The picture prompts us to say that the jury know their business. In West Texas language, the child is a "spittin' image."

We hope this will not affect Charlie financially so that he will not be able to continue to pay for the Madison Square Garden for Russia Firsters. To pay for three nights within six weeks shows where Charlie's heart is.

From the way Charlie handles his love affairs — five women, and the last one he dumped at the Beverly Hills police station — it looks like he approves of the Russian system.

In a late book, "I Chose Freedom," Victor Kravchenko, former Soviet official who is now in this country, tells us when he was in Russia the method of getting rid of a wife was to mail a post card to the Central Committee, stating the husband did not want his wife any longer, then he was free to marry the next day. So they do have some freedom in Russia.

On May 27th, Charlie, with some Red friends, attended one of the many parties given lately on a Russian ship just off the Pacific shore. He said the nature of the party called for it to be held on Russian territory. When he came ashore he had some sharp words with the U.S. Customs men and let slip that they were "American Gestapo."

Charles has not done so badly here in America — thirty years and thirty million American dollars and five American wives, but he has been too busy to become a Citizen. He used the money he made in America to help finance an organization which is working day and night to destroy the government which allows him the privilege he would not enjoy one day in Russia.

What these boys won't do for free love and intellectual freedom, as they call it! Official Congressional Committee says that there are 435 Communist writers in the movie industry in California.
